

you already took howard stern now you want to take xm radio from us?there is a terror threat in the u.s. and you guys are worried about what is being broadcast on xm. i pay for it and i want what i paid for. very easy guys stop worshipping the american dollar and start listening to the public, without us your nothing. i can't wait till november when bush loses because of his very much involvement in everybody's business. take care of the american people, don't take from the american people.